

January of 2017: Superior Court Justice Frances Kiteley noted that the Compliance Audit matter was developing a life of its own and advised the parties to conference with Associate Chief Justice Marrocco and seek a less expensive and early resolution in May of that year.

January 2018: Superior Court Justice Ann Molloy noted in her decision that The Compliance Audit Committee misunderstood its role and the Township might intervene if the costs were excessive and of a direct interest to the Township.

 20 months of delays triggered by McLean and Compliance Audit Committee

July 2016: McLean application for Judicial Review challenging appointment of Grant Thornton.

January 2017: Grant Thornton files motion to dismiss McLean Judicial Review. McLean opposes the motion. Compliance Audit Committee supports McLean’s opposition.

January 2017: Justice Frances Kiteley rules in favour of Grant Thornton’s motion and suggests all parties consider a less expensive resolution and meet with Assistant Chief Justice Frank Marrocco.

May 2017: Settlement conference with Justice Marrocco proposing an accelerated process. French and McLean accept proposal, Compliance Audit Committee declines, prolonging the process.

December 2017: French Judicial Review is finally heard and dismissed in January 2018.

April 2019: After $310,000+ spent by Township on matter, prosecutor withdraws all charges against French

Possible
Township Intervention

Oct 2015

July 2016

Jan 2017

May 2017

Jan 2018

March 2016

December 2017